

Curriculum Vitae

Maly Danino

Education:

B.A. in Behavioral Sciences, Ben Gurion University

M.Sc. in Educational Management, Ben Gurion University

Ph.D. in Education, Haifa University

Work Experience:

- 2003 – Present: Executive Director of Nitzan, the Israeli National Association for the Advancement of Children and Adults with Learning Disabilities.
- 2005 – Present: Facilitating Parents Groups and training professionals in working with parents and children with learning disabilities.
- 2003 – 2010 Teaching a Masters Degree course in Learning Disabilities at the University of Haifa.
- 1999 - 2003 Founder and director of the Learning Disabilities Unit of Psychological Services of the Ministry of Education.
- 1991 – 1999 Principal, Hasharon High School for students with learning disabilities.
- Teaching Entrepreneurship, "Modern Confrontation with Initiatives and Innovations in Education and Teaching" at the Teachers Advanced Study Center of Bar Ilan University.
- Organizational Consultant at educational institutions: Farkoff High School in Or Yehuda and Amal Aleph High School in Petach Tikva.
- Teaching at Derby University in the Graduate Management Program (Education and Business).
- Teaching at Open University in Management and Marketing for Students of Economics and Administration.
- Member of the Entrepreneurship Syllabus Planning Committee for the Syllabus Planning Dept. of the Ministry of Education.
- 1977 – 1990 Educational Counselor at various schools, and supervisor of educational counselors in the Southern District.

Publications:

Arazi, C; Danino, M; Ashwat, M. Team Entrepreneurship. Reches, 1994.

Arazi, C; Danino, M; Ashwat M. Entrepreneurs on their Way, Reches, 1995.

Arazi, C; Danino, M., Ashwat, M. Entrepreneurship – Selected Sections for the High School Syllabus, Mapat Amal, 1996.

Margalit; Efrati; Danino; "Accommodation in Matriculation Exams for Students with Learning Disabilities: A Research and Educational Survey, " The Educational Advisor, Volume 11, 48-64, 2002.

Kaplan, Danino, "Diversity as Challenge and Opportunity for Growth in the School: Developing a Caring Community for Students with Learning Disabilities" The Educational Advisor, Volume 11, 64-84, 2002.

Danino M., The Parent as a Coach, Rimonim, 2007

Danino M., Coach your child to success, Rimonim, 2011

Conferences:

Presents regularly at national and international conferences including:

SPR 2011, 42nd Annual Meeting, Bern, Switzerland.

AGPA Conference 2011, New York, USA

LDA National Conference 2006, Jacksonville, USA.